(d) IRBI Act contains special provisions for recovery of dues from the borrowers and guarantors in terms of Section 40 and 41 of the IRBI Act, whereby IRBI can approach concerned High Courts for sale of the assets of the company and of the guarantors' properties charged to IRBI by way of collateral securities. The said procedure is followed by IRBI in all such cases. However, in accordance with the provisions of Public Financial Institutions (Obligation as to Fidelity and Secrecy) Act, 1983, names of such concerns cannot be divulged.

Credit Cards by Standard Chartered

2094. SHRI SUSHIL KUMAR SAM BHAJIRAO SHINDE: SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Standard Chartered Bank (Stanchart) has launched a new series of Credit Cards with photos, to prevent the alleged white collar, crime, involving Rs. 1800 crores of plastic money in the Indian market; and

(b) whether as reported, over 11.2% of the 1.2 million credit cards under circulation in India are counterfeit and what steps are being taken to prevent circulation of this counterfeit plastic money?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M.V. CHANDRASHEKHAR MURTHY): (a) and (b) Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has reported that Standard Chartered Bank has launched a new series of Credit Cards with photos. But it is not aware of the white collar crimes involving Rs. 1800 crores of plastic money in the Indian market. As reported by public sector banks, private sector banks and foreign banks, 886 cases of frauds involving an amount of Rs. 270.10 lakhs, had taken place during the years 1992-93 to 1994-95. RBI has further stated that counterfeit cards are only one of the kinds of frauds prevalent in credit cards business. Banks have, however, not reported to RBI incidence of frauds perpetrated by way of counterfeit credit cards.
